THE TRUE ANGELITE

The uppermost aim of the Academy is to make each and every girl who enters its portals a TRUE ANGELITE. Such a girl is a practical Christopher or "Christ-bearer", a true follower of the Divine Master. She is a reflection of the most pure servants of God, the Angels, because she always strives to diffuse about, her charity, peace, and good-will. Her aspirations are noble because she desires to become a servant to her needy fellow beings in a manner that would promote in her the best possible Christ-like spirit, the spirit of love and sacrifice. Unprejudiced, she endeavors to assist all, and yearns to become the beacon light that shows many, regardless of creed and race, the path to genuine happiness. Hence, she does not execute her tasks for earthly fame and acclaim; and though she may attain heights unreached by others, she reverts her popularity to the glory and praise of God. To a TRUE ANGELITE the rules of the Academy are not a tiresome burden, a restriction on her freedom; they are rather, the guiding steps to a bright future and to the attainment of her soul's yearning for its eternal home. The rules show her the sought-for way to the true freedom, namely, FREEDOM FROM SIN. The simplicity of her garb is a reminder of her ideals; the blue and white of her uniform symbolize purity of mind and heart. When an Angelite leaves the Academy she begins to realize in a practical way all that her Christian education signifies. She then becomes aware of the fact that Christian principles are to guide all her actions, and her life is to be a model to those who were not fortunate to receive a sound Christian schooling. It remains, therefore, for her to do the utmost for the building of a better world for people to live in.

Matka Generalna Zgrom. SS. Felicjanek

Cześć zasłudze

Mimo prac i zajęć, zarówno wśród burz jak i w dni słoneczne nasza Przewielebna Matka Generalna zapomina o sobie, by całkowicie oddać się na usługi duszyczek sobie powierzonych, i kroczy wąską ścieżyną obok Boskiego Mistrza. Słowa podzięk, czci i szacunku składamy za radość, jaką Przewielebna Matka rozsiewa Swą obecnością.

PRINCIPAL

DEDICATION

For your ceaseless labor and sincere effort in behalf of our success, for your kind and patient guidance, for the noble ideals you have strived to imprint on our souls, we, the Seniors, dedicate our 1948 Year Book to You, Our Dear and Beloved Principal. At the parting of the ways, we wish to express our deep appreciation and gratitude. May God be your eternal reward!

CELINE CZAJA

St. Stanislaus Kostka

Adams, Mass.

President of the Christopher Club 4; Vice President of the Polish Circle 4; Assistant Secretary of the Polish Circle 3; Secretary of the Glee Club 1-2-3-4; Reporter of "The Angelite" 3-4; Member of the Literary Club 3-4; Member of the Christopher Club 3-4; Class VALEDICTORIAN.

*"The gains of science, gifts of art;
The thirst to know and understand—
These are the goods in life's rich hand,
The things that are more excellent."*

Beneath the robe of Celine's joviality and good-naturedness lie many talents, the outstanding of which is the aptitude for sciences, and dramatic ability. To Celine solving geometrical problems and unraveling intricacies of scientific laws are a merry pastime. Your many friends, Celine, wish you the best of luck that daily you may increase in God's wisdom and grace. God Love You!

DOROTHY GONDEK

St. Mary's

Middletown, Conn.

Business Manager of "The Angelite" 3-4; Assistant Secretary of the Polish Circle 4; Member of the Glee Club 1-2-3-4; Member of the Christopher Club 3-4; Member of the Literary Club 3-4.

"Joyous, and clear, and fresh, thy music doth surpass"

Dorothy is our song bird, lyric soprano! Every now and then over the piano keys her nimble fingers would alight and her tuneful and melodious voice ascend on high. Hand in hand with her admiration for music is her esteem for neatness and trimness. We are confident that fortune and success in her footsteps wait, for all her endeavors are whole-hearted.

Rest assured, Dot, that our good wishes are with you. God bless you!

ANN HALAK

St. Bernard's

Hazardville, Conn.

Vice-President of the Senior Class; President of Christopher Club 3; Vice-President of Christopher Club 4; Member of Literary Club 3-4; Editor of "The Angelite" 3; Assistant editor of "The Angelite" 4; Member of the Glee Club 3.

*"With thy clear keen joyance
Languor cannot be;
Shadow of annoyance
Never came near thee".*

Although Ann had been with us only two years, her calm, serene disposition and winning personality had won her many friends. She desires some day to become an English teacher. Go ahead, Ann, our prayerful wishes are with you. "May prudence, fortitude, and truth, erect your brow undaunting." Farewell!

JEAN ANNE SKOWER

St. Adalbert's

Thompsonville, Conn.

Senior Class President; Typist and mimeographer of "The Angelite" 3-4; Member of Literary Club 3-4; Member of the Glee Club 3; Class SPOKESMAN.

"A loyal 'Angelite' of cultured taste Unspoiled, reserved, demure and chaste."

Jean Anne had been with us only two years, but she had shown herself to be a pleasant, industrious and responsible "Angelite". Worry sometimes got the best of her; nevertheless, she never fell under its weight, but stepped ahead and "succeeded". She hopes some day to become a physical therapist. Farewell, Jean, and many heartiest wishes for your success. May God's graces crown your zealous efforts!

JEANETTE THOUIN

Holy Trinity

Westfield, Mass.

President of Literary Club 3-4; Assistant Editor of "The Angelite" 3; Editor-in-chief of "The Angelite" 4; Member of the Glee Club 1-2-3-4; Member of the Christopher Club 3-4; Member of Latin Club 3; Member of Polish Circle 3-4; Class SALUTATORIAN.

"He who has a book has a friend"

Jeanette is seldom sad or weary. On the contrary she is ever blithe and cheerful. A smile befits her much better than a flood of tears. She enjoys work as well as play. In reality, Jeanette's heart can never be wanting; her spare moments, regardless how short they may be, are spent in BOOKS. Volumes of heartiest wishes, Jeanette. May the Good Lord be your guide in every step of your life!

CECILIA WEGRZYN

St. Stanislaus Kostka

Adams, Mass.

President of the Polish Circle 4; Secretary of the Polish Circle 3; Secretary of the Christopher Club 3; Member of the Christopher Club 3-4; Polish editor of "The Angelite" 3-4; Mimeographer of "The Angelite" 3; Secretary of the Literary Club 4; Member of the Literary Club 3-4; Member of the Glee Club.

"For he who is honest is noble, Whatever his fortune or birth".

Cecilia believes it to be true that a noble deed is a step toward God. She is always amiable and gentle, and ever ready to please others. Though Cecilia speaks little, she possesses distinctive dramatic talents and gracefulness in dancing. We hope, we aspire, we pray, "Celcia", that God remain with you always.

SYMBOLISM OF THE SEAL OF OUR LADY OF THE ANGELS ACADEMY

The seal is circular in form, one and three-quarters inches in diameter, with three charges inscribed on an heraldic shield. The whole seal is blazoned "or" because gold has special significance referring to Christ, the Light of the world.

The upper section of the escutcheon, the dexter chief, which is always considered the place of honor on a shield, depicts the Immaculate Heart of Mary, the emblem of the Community of the Felician Sisters, O. S. F. In natural symbolism, the heart is the center of activity, the seat of life and strength. Displayed on this shield, the Heart typifies angelic purity, the preservation of which should be the constant subject of the students' prayer and vigilance; in general, it stands for the moral education, the very core and foundation upon which all education for the true, the good, and the beautiful must be founded.

The choice of the angel as a charge is suggested by the name of the school, Our Lady of the Angels. It occupies the sinister flank of the shield. The dexter wing of the angel extends horizontally and the sinister wing is raised vertically. This symbolizes the necessity of directing the earthly heavenward; the unification of labor with prayer. Furthermore, in general symbolism the angel typifies a good man — "What is man that thou art mindful of him? . . . Thou hast made him a little less than the angels." (Ps. 8:5, 6) Sound physical health provides greater opportunity and potentiality for sound mental health. It is this "animus sanus in corpore sano" that the angel represents on this shield. Physical education is an important phase of complete education.

The bearing marshaled in the base of the shield is an open book, a symbol of learning. On this shield it represents intellectual education which is specifically the enlightenment, guiding and training of the faculty of thought.

The motto, "Omnia Per Cor Mariae", starts at the dexter flank cuts through the fess, or the heart point of the shield, and ends in the sinister chief canton. It is inscribed in a crescent-shaped band which is a peculiar symbol of the Blessed Mother referring to the figure of the moon in Apocalypse XII, 1: "A great sign appeared in heaven: A woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars."

The "raison d'être" of the motto becomes immediately obvious. All — prayer, work, and play; guidance, direction, instruction and discipline are undertaken for the greater glory of God through the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

CLASS HISTORY

A NEW WORLD

It was only four short years ago that our class embarked on its career of suspense . . . anticipation . . . enthusiasm . . . as Freshies at Our Lady of the Angels Academy. In September 1944, alterations were being made at the Academy; the top floor of the Convent infirmary, therefore, was our living quarters. The convent auditorium and library and the infirmary office were our temporary classrooms. We truly felt like Half-Nuns for two months. We lived, slept, ate, and studied in the Convent. What adventure! It certainly was a "New World" to our youthful curiosity.

November 21 brought us new expectation. We were moving to the Academy! A new birth, a new freedom to us, bewildered Freshies! Necessity forced us to apply ourselves whole-heartedly to the newly assigned duties and to adapt ourselves to the new environment. (We surely missed the convent atmosphere.) Religion, World History, Polish, Algebra, English and Latin kept us busy. Algebra and Latin, however, proved to be most troublesome. Algebra brought us to the realization that such complications as simultaneous equations required seriousness and precision of mind. Laborious hours were spent with Latin in learning its five declensions and four conjugations. We did find time, however, to relate to each other our new experiences and discoveries in the "New World" (the Academy). Before long the fact dawned upon us that the year was at an end, leaving behind pleasant memories.

PROGRESS

At the beginning of our sophomore year, (we certainly did suffer more), we found ourselves facing new problems. We were then no longer six but four. Two students were overpowered by loneliness and returned home. Daily Caesar's battles were fought precisely at one o'clock by four students. The progress was at times very slow and victory was questionable, but somehow with God's grace we managed to complete the course that year. Though we were sophomores, circumstances were such that we were not full-fledged Angelites. We did not realize the fact until the memorable Initiation Day. What a surprise! We had passed the test!!! Other surprises were the Hallowe'en Party and Academy Uniforms. We were progressing!

All in all, the year passed quickly and joyfully. The mischievous look in our eyes was no longer seen. We were soon to be Juniors . . .

A STEP HIGHER

The time had come. We now considered ourselves upperclassmen. Two day students enrolled in our ranks. Our original number "six" returned. Books kept us exceptionally busy, especially French with its irregular verbs. Toward the end of the first term the first issue of our schoolpaper, "The Angelite", was published. Faithfully every Monday afternoon, the students found themselves in the presence of our music teacher, M. Beauregard.

The days swiftly passed with the thought ever before us that only one year remained. . . .

THE GOAL REACHED

We are Seniors! From the very beginning of our senior year thoughts of graduation and the future spurred us on to work harder. Chemistry experiments and Solid Geometry problems tested our perseverance but nevertheless, we enjoyed both mathematical sciences.

An Open House during Education Week added to our experiences and gave an insight into our teaching career.

Today, as we push back the dial of time, it seems as though it were only yesterday that we entered the portals of our dear "ALMA MATER".

Dear and Honorable Faculty, as we take our final step at our Alma Mater, we wish to express our profound gratitude, deep appreciation and unlimited thanks for spurring us to honor and respect ALL that leads to God, Christ our King.

BELOVED ALMA MATER, FAREWELL.

Intronizacja

“Chryste Królu miłosierny, jakąż to zniewaga!
Czym Ci wynagrodzimy za tych biednych ludzi?
Bo płakać to za mało, kiedy zło się wzmacza—
Może nasza ofiara ich do czci Twej pobudzi.”

Coraz częściej się zdarza, że dusze pobożne publicznie obierają Chrystusa za swego Króla i Mistrza, aby wynagrodzić Bogu za liczne zniewagi i obelgi. Jezus wówczas staje się współuczestnikiem wszystkich ich myśli, pragnień i przedsięwzięć. Jemu zwierają się ze swych pociech, trosk i boleści.

Tak i my, pragnąc przyczynić się do rozszerzenia Królestwa Chrystusowego, obrałyśmy uroczyscie Jezusa za Wodza i Króla naszej Akademii. Wiel. Ks. J. Łuniewski ze zgromadzenia OO. Marianów w towarzystwie Wiel. Ks. W. Mrocza dopełnił wzniosłego aktu Intronizacji w obecności Wielebnej Matki M. Katarzyny, grona Sióstr i Studentek. Po odmówieniu przepięknego aktu ofiarowania, serca nasze zapaliły się tym większą miłością, że odtąd Chrystus stał się szczególniejszym Przyjacielem i Królem tajemników serc naszych.

W każdy pierwszy piątek miesiąca zbieramy się przed obrazem Chrystusa Króla, który zajmuje zaszczytne miejsce w naszej Akademii, i tu odprawiamy godzinę świętą. Oby Boskie Serce tak królowało nad wszystkimi sercami!

Omnis Gloria ab Intus

We have chosen Christ, the King, as the Patron and Lord of our hearts. How majestic is His Power; how pure and deep is His love! During His earthly sojourn He was a poor Nazarene; yet throngs gathered about Him daily. He possessed neither riches nor vast tracts of land; yet He was a mighty King and Ruler of millions of souls. Hence, the beauty, splendor, glory, and sweet majesty of our King were not a result of successful acquisition of earthly powers. They were a reflection of the soul within. We have taken an example from our Patron and King and have selected "Omnis Gloria ab Intus" (All glory is from within) as our motto. We hope, we trust, and we pray that this motto will ever stand before us like a sentinel guiding our daily thoughts and actions, that daily we may more closely walk in the footsteps of our Lord and Master, Christ the King.

The white rose, our class flower, and a symbol of love, we have chosen to remind us of the love we should bear for the King of Love.

CHRISTUS REGNAT

O King of kings — O, Friend of friends, O Love Itself, to Thee we flee! We beg Thee O Beloved Lord to bring Your sceptre into our hearts, we surrender them to Thee, that You may recreate them into a resting place for Your wounded Heart, that when all the world is immersed in the pursuit of sinful pleasures, we may be near Thee, faithful and consoling. We ask nothing more of Thee, than to be a consolation, to keep the vigil, to watch and pray, for who has suffered more? — who has been more ungratefully repaid? — and who has been more abused and scorned, than You my Lord? O Christ, Our King, Our PATRON, we are Yours!

THE ANGELICAN

OUR FACULTY

We've lot to be grateful for
To our loving Faculty,
To those who taught us here
At O.L.A.

Our organist, Sister Mary Laura,
Instilled within our hearts
Appreciation for singing,
And other musical arts.

To higher goals we've been directed
In our Religion classes always
By Sister Mary Lauretta
Throughout the merry school year days.

The theorems in Geometry,
And formulas in Chemistry
Were explained by Sister Mary Viterbia
With admiring patience and accuracy.

We've learned to love our Library,
The heart of our dear school,
Where librarian, Sister Mary Pontia,
Has taught us many a rule.

And when it came to languages—
To the French or to the Latin,
Sister Mary Emilite's the one,
Who taught us every paradigm.

Through books by many authors
We've traveled far and wide.
The trips were quite engrossing
With Sister Mary Doloria, as guide.

Sister Mary Consolata
Has taught most of us and 'tis true
To love the Polish language
And American History, too.

Not only were our minds trained,
But our bodies just as well,
For Mrs. Nellie Sojka,
The gym teacher, was swell.

Rich is the Tribute of the Grateful Mind. — Burns.

Today, as we are about to leave the portals of our dear Alma Mater, we breathe a prayer of thanksgiving for our deeply respected teachers, the Felician Sisters. May Christ the King bless and thank you in the way that He knows best for the many sacrifices and painstaking labor you, Dear Sisters, had undertaken to lay for us the foundation of a true Christian education. Oftentimes, when our steps faltered, you had been that magnetic force which drew us steadfastly along the right path. In hours of trial, your words of encouragement taught us to profit by the suffering that came across our path. Above all, your exemplary lives had been not only a source of inspiration but were also influential in leading us to follow more closely in the footsteps of Our Divine Lord and Master, Christ the King.

Dear Sisters, we cannot thank you as we would for all you had done for us. Your kindness has meant so much to us that only Christ can ever repay your services. Therefore to Him we delegate what we cannot express. May Christ the King impart to you His choicest blessings. Upon ourselves, however, we take the responsibility of walking the path of life you have so well demonstrated to us throughout the years. WE THANK YOU! FAREWELL!

HEART of OUR SCHOOL

There is scarcely a place where character more clearly manifests itself than in the LIBRARY. Accuracy, concentration, observation, promptitude, respect for the rights of others, self-control, unselfishness, uprightness, courtesy — all these are called into play.

The Sciences

*"And this our life, exempt from public haunt,
Find tongues in trées, books in the running brooks,
Sermons in stones, and good in everything."*

The study of the sciences enabled us to enter into the archives of Creation. The sciences offered us golden opportunities in the development of our physical, intellectual and moral life making us more intelligent Christians, superior students and better citizens of this world and the eternal Jerusalem.

BIOLOGY — Study of God's Handiwork

Biology creates an abiding interest in living things; respect for life and a disposition to protect and preserve it; a desire to contribute to the betterment of what is faulty and undesirable in the environment; and, best of all, draws one closer to the Divine Author and Preserver of all life.

Living things give
BEAUTY, HARMONY, and SUBLIMITY
to the face of nature.

Sophomores

LIFE OF CHRIST — A portrayal of Divine Love

Sophomore religion portrays Christ's Life as a dynamo which sends out energy for Christlike living.

AMERICAN HISTORY — A glimpse into Democracy

We love our country — we owe it allegiance. We are always ready for all forms of sacrifice to preserve the welfare of our beloved country.

LATIN — The key to better English

Classical studies lead to the appreciation of linguistic appropriateness and to the better knowledge of Roman culture as a source of influence in modern life.

GEOMETRY — The basis for logical reasoning

Geometry develops ability to observe relations, to make statements in concise language, and to verify assumptions by proof.

JOY IN READING — An introduction to the treasure-house of ideals

Freshmen enjoy reading, which is to them like gems or music or the drama or travel or any of the other amusements.

WORLD HISTORY — The means of judging the future by the past

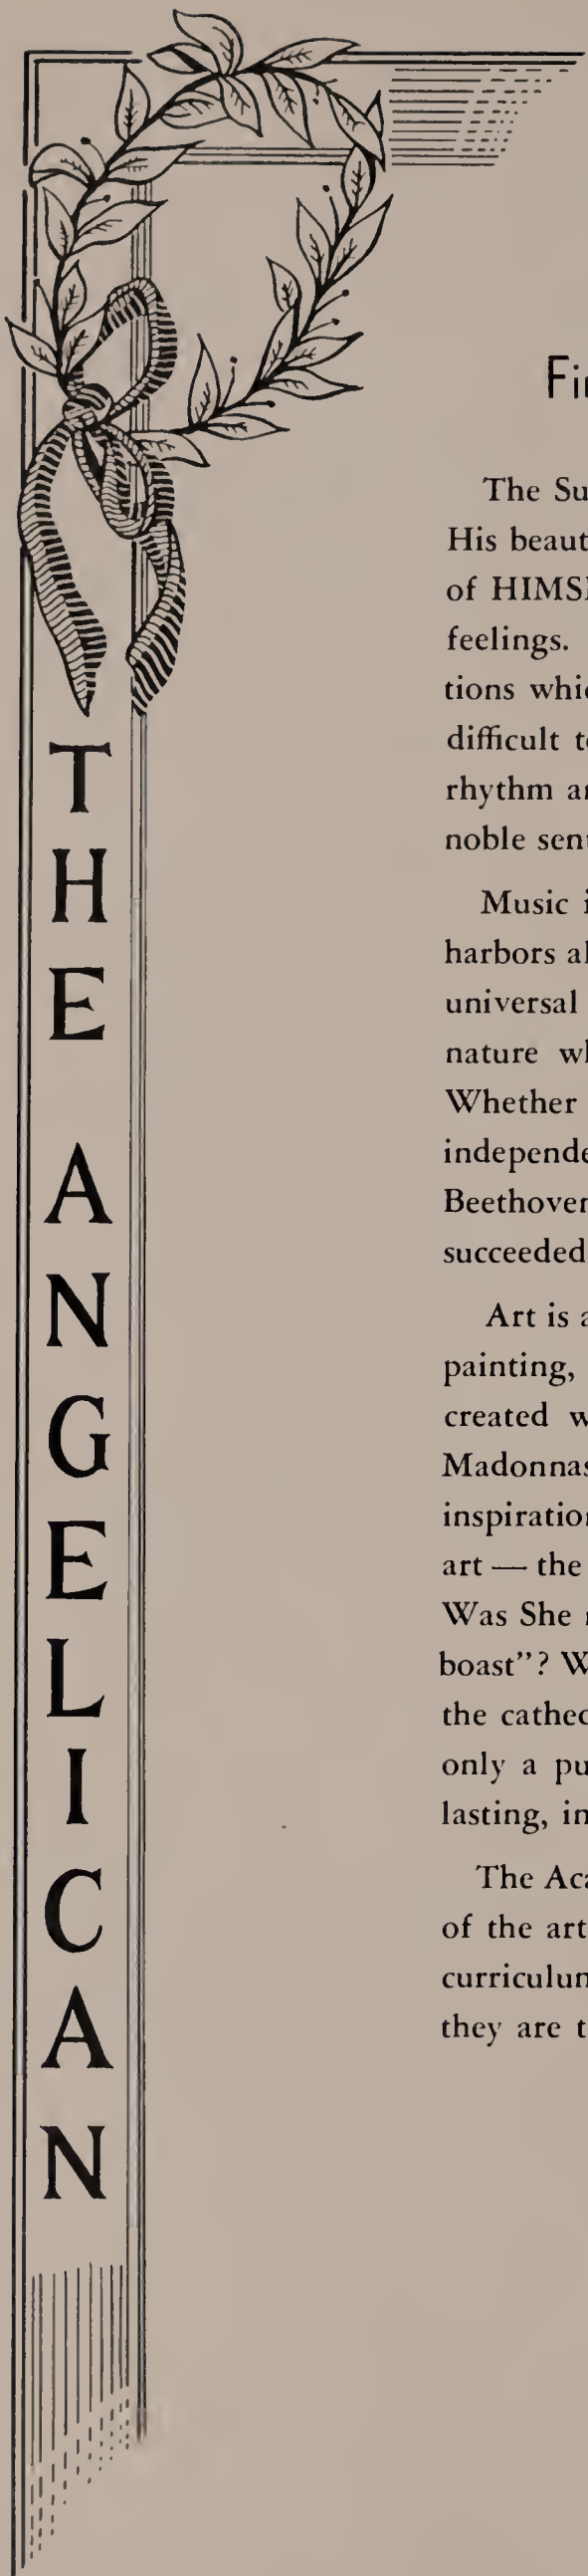

Social studies recover and save from the deluge of time monuments, names, proverbs, traditions, records, fragments of stories, passages of books and the like.

ALGEBRA — A symbolic language

The study of algebra is one of the most profitable mental occupations. It demands accuracy and concentration in the highest degree.

Fine Arts, the Expression of the Supreme Master

The Supreme Master, the Lord of the universe, imbued in creation a reflection of His beauty. Man is God's creative being. To man the Lord entrusted the revelation of HIMSELF. God endowed man with a soul, a soul to disclose the fluidity of his feelings. Magnificence, therefore, lies within the depths of man's soul. The emotions which well in man's soul; such as, joy, sorrow, suspense, or yearning are often difficult to express with eloquence of words. It takes art and music, the poetry of rhythm and sound in all its splendor, to portray with tender strokes and chords the noble sentiments of man.

Music is something outside of this world. It is a part of immortality, itself. It harbors all, great or little, strong or humble, famed or nameless. It is, therefore, the universal language of the immortal soul. It is the expression of the grandeur of nature which constantly surrounds man, be it in form, mood, poetry, or sound. Whether it be the merriment of Strauss' waltzes, the grief over the loss of Polish independence of Chopin, or the rapid flow of emotion, as in the first movement of Beethoven's "Appassionata", each artist was conscious of these aspects of nature and succeeded in emitting these features in the fullness of perfection.

Art is a revelation of beauty. The many divisions of art — architecture, sculpture, painting, show us the delicate, simple, and yet intricate patterns which the artist has created with the aid of an enlightenment, that many of us cannot perceive. The Madonnas are the great masterpieces which clearly represent those moments of noble inspiration of the higher nature in man. They are typical examples of the supreme art — the art of Christian living, for was not Mary the Mother of the Divine Artist? Was She not the attraction of the painter? Is She not "our tainted nature's solitary boast"? What has more prominent place in the history of art than the Madonnas and the cathedrals and churches built in Mary's honor? It can be easily concluded that only a pure, upright soul through divine inspiration is able to achieve a thing of lasting, influential beauty.

The Academy strives to cultivate the aesthetic sense in its students. The importance of the arts is fully realized and so art and music have a definite place in the school curriculum. All students are encouraged to acquire a love for music and art since they are the works that one may take to the Kingdom of Heaven.

CONTEMPLATION

In the midst of wandering thoughts
There's one that occupies our mind;
'Tis like a precious jewel
That we ever yearn to find.

It seems to entail successful days
And many delightful hours;
But what can a foible creature
Perceive with eyes like ours?

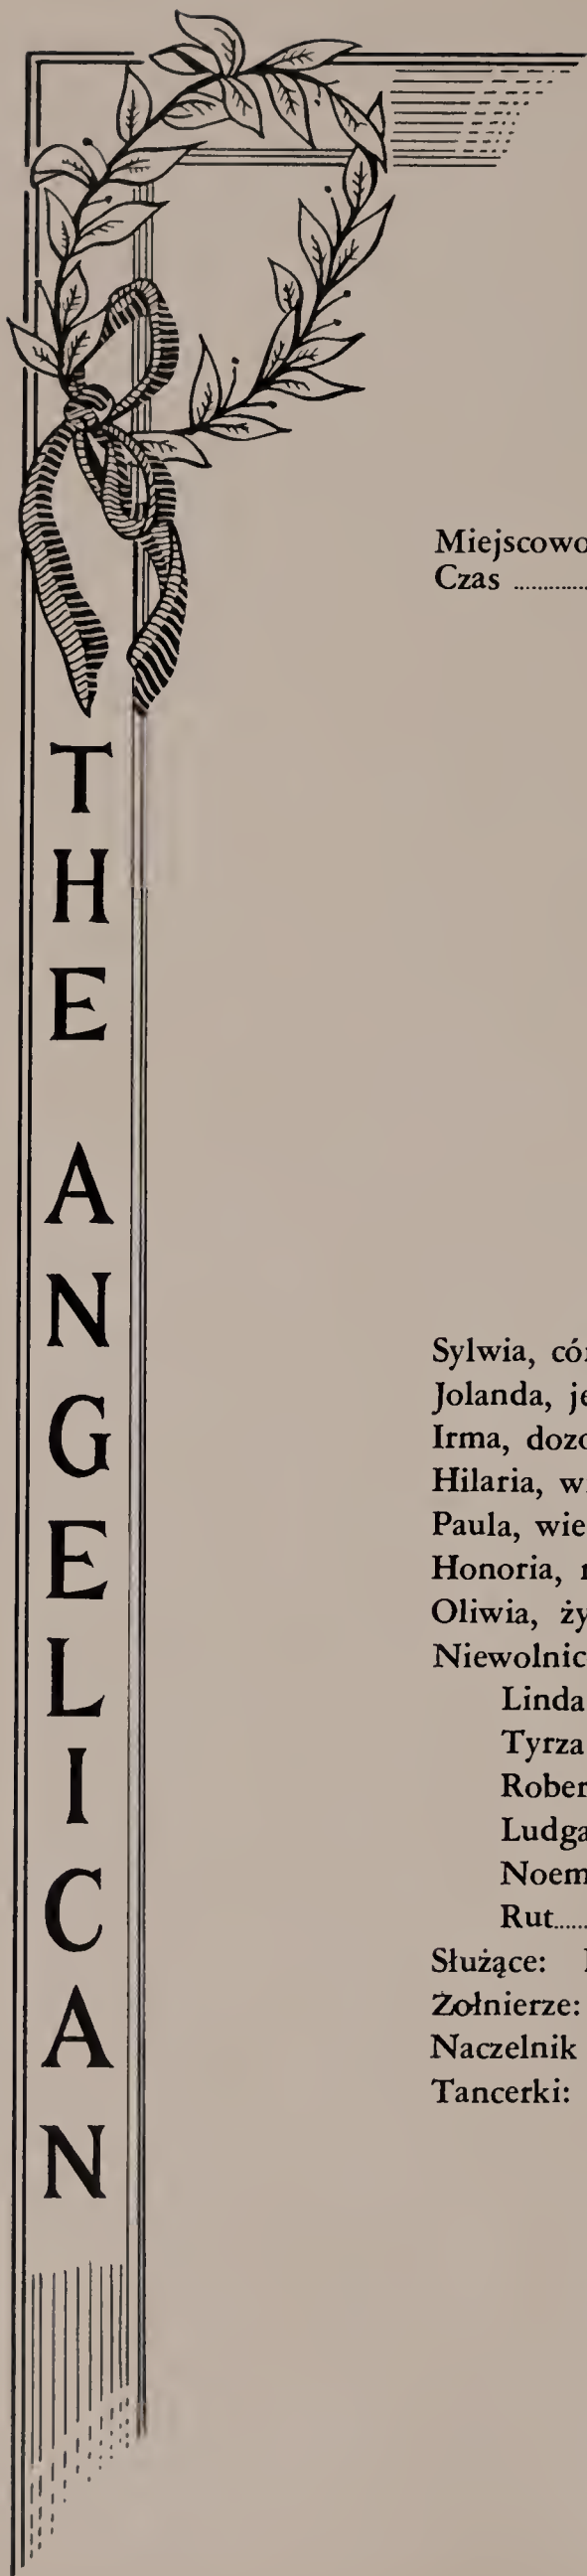

It is the thought of novitiate
That really inspires our soul;
With God's grace and Divine Providence
We hope to attain our goal.

TREŚĆ DRAMATU

Moc cudotwórcza Płaszcz Mistrza z Nazaretu jest tematem tego wzruszającego dramatu.

Mrok osnuwał ziemię, kiedy dumna rzymianka Sylwia przygotowywała się do wzięcia udziału w uczcie, na której spodziewała się obecności Fulwiusza, naczelnika Legionów Tebańskich, i znakomitych dam rzymskich. Sylwia dowiaduje się przypadkowo, że jej młodsza siostra Jolanda została chrześcijanką. Ta wieść napęła ją taką zapalczywością, że przysięga zemścić się na swej siostrze i na Chrystusie, Który według jej mniemania, "omamił jej pierwszego oblubieńca Dionizego."

Za namową Sylwii Prefekt Sylwanus rozkazuje uwięzić Jolandę. Podczas gdy Sylwia bawi się wesoło na sali bankietowej, Jolanda cierpi głód w celi więziennej. Tu ją odwiedza Paula, jej wierna niewolnica. Potajemnie przynosi jej pokarm, a zarazem powiadamia ją, że ojciec skazał swą córkę na ukamienowanie. Jolanda spokojnie przyjmuje tę wiadomość, pragnąc jedynie ujrzeć Mistrza z Nazaretu, by nabrać otuchy do niesienia swego bolesnego ciosu z miłości ku Niemu. Paula wtenczas opowiada jej przebieg Męki Jezusa, Którego widziała przy biczowaniu. Sylwia tymczasem rozkoszuje się na uczcie, przy końcu której dzieje się rzecz niespodziewana. Poselstwo Fulwiusza przynosi od swego naczelnika dla Sylwii "najcenniejszy skarb" (Płaszcz Jezusa z Nazaretu) z prośbą, aby go przechowała do powrotu Fulwiusza, który przewodniczył przy Ukrzyżowaniu Zbawiciela. Sylwia, pałająca nienawiścią do wszystkiego, co chrześcijańskie, zakrywa twarz, nie chce przyjąć tego "Skarbu", odwraca się odeń, chce uciekać, lecz pada jakby nieżywa. Za dotknięciem Płaszcz powstaje, ale już nie ta sama. CHRYSTUS zwyciężył! Łaska Boża ją przeistoczyła. Biegnie, by pojednać się z swą siostrą, którą już zawlekli żołnierze na miejsce stracenia. Właśnie w chwili, kiedy żołnierze już gotowi są rzucić kamienie na Jolandę, wpada Sylwia z Płaszczem Zbawiciela i za pomocą tej drogiej Relikwii uwalnia swą siostrę od haniebnej śmierci. Sylwia przepelniona żalem za swą niegodziwą przeszłość, serdecznie przeprasza swą siostrę, która wspaniałomyślnie przebacza winowajczyni. U stóp Krzyża na Kalwarii obie siostry dziękują Zbawicielowi, że za przyczyną Jego Płaszcz połączył ich serca w miłości i zlał je w jedno w Sercu Jezusowem.

INTERNATKA

Młodzież szuka przygód; młodzież pragnie bohaterstwa; młodzież niechybna przyjmuje różne wezwania. Internatka jest ta, która przyjęła wezwanie, to jest zaproszenie od Samego Jezusa, które On niegdyś wyraził nad Jordanem i dzisiaj do wielu powtarza, "Pójdź za Mną."

Tak, Internatka odzyskała tę wiekuistą przygodę i bohaterstwo, gdy poświęciła swe życie ku zbawieniu dusz.

Cztery lata w internacie są spędzone w przygotowaniu się do swej przyszłej pracy. Dzień internatki jest podzielony między nauką, pracą, modlitwą, i różnymi innymi obowiązkami. Codzienne uczęszczanie na Mszę świętą jest jednym ze źródeł przez które łaski i błogosławieństwa spływają nań, a które tak bardzo są potrzebne do wykształcenia nie tylko duchownego ale i naukowego. Nabożeństwa, nawiedzenia Najśw. Sakramentu, króciutkie medytacje, roczne rekolekcje, są to bogate środki, którymi dusza jej postępuje na drodze uświęcenia.

Taka młoda panienka, która ofiarowała Bogu siebie, swą duszę i ciało, znalazła drogocenną perłę.

MODLITWĄ WYPRASZAJ SOBIE WYBÓR STANU ŻYCIA

O mój Boże, Który jesteś Bogiem mądrości i rady, Ty widzisz w mym sercu szczere pragnienie, aby tylko Tobie się przypodobać i wybrać sobie stan życia zgodnie z Wolą Twoją we wszystkim. Błagam Cię przez przyczynę Najśw. Maryi Panny, mej Matki, i Świętych moich Patronów, wspomóż mnie łaską Twoją świętą, abym obrała sobie taki rodzaj życia, do którego mnie powołujesz dla większej Twojej chwały i dla mego zbawienia, abym zasłużyła sobie na wieczną nagrodę, jaką obiecałeś tym, którzy pełnią Twoją świętą wolę. Amen.

I wszelki, który by opuścił dom, albo braci, albo siostry, albo ojca, albo matkę, albo żonę, albo syny, albo rolę dla imienia mego: tyle stokroć weźmie, i żywot wieczny odzierży.

(Św. Mat. 19:29)

OUR CLUBS

CHRISTOPHER CLUB

Aim: to awaken interest in the work of the mission fields here and abroad, to aid their work spiritually and financially, to instill into the hearts of its members a Christ-like spirit of charity, and to encourage students to "restore into every walk of American life the fundamentals upon which our country was founded."

POLISH CLUB

Aim: to become acquainted with the land of our forefathers, with its rich culture and beautiful traditions, that we may learn to love her all the more.

MARIS STELLA CLUB

Aim: to pass on to the youth of the modern world the torch of knowledge of the social and artistic culture of the Romans.

LITERARY CLUB

Aim: to foster wholesome reading, to encourage research, to train students to hold public discussions and debates, and to sponsor the publication of the school paper.

FONDLY WE SHALL RECALL

Dolores's puns and humorous diction.

Fanny's Big Heart.

Frances's fondness for reading French.

Jean's alacrity.

Barbara's forgetfulness.

Joan's generosity.

Emily's delicate "piano touch".

Mary's ballet dancing.

Theresa's first day in school.

THE DAYS WE SPENT TOGETHER.

ULUBIONE NASZE ZATRUDNIENIA

Kącik ten zostawiłyśmy wyłącznie naszym najmilszym zatrudnieniom. Życie na tej łez dolinie jest wędrówką, nieraz tak ciężką i bolesną, że natura nasza domaga się milej rozrywki. Słusznie, więc, każdy człowiek lubi te środki, co rozpraszają smutek i niepokój, podobne do myszy, o których mówi Zagłoba w Panu Wołodyjowskim, "Cóż bowiem są smutki, jeśli nie myszy, które gryzą ziarna wesołości złożone w naszych sercach?"

Śpiew i granie uszlachetniają serce. Dorci ulubionym zajęciem jest śpiew, a to z powodu jej cudnego głosu, którym wyśpiewuje Panu na chwałę. Z śpiewem łączy się ściśle muzyka, to też Dorcia wygrywa często na fortepianie.

Celinka lubi nieraz usiąść spokojnie i zatapiać się w tej wiedzy, którą wszystkie zdobywają w klasach. Wyszukuje różne problemy z geometrii i chemii i rozwiązuje je własnymi wymyślonymi sposobami.

"Polska krew w niej płynie, polskie serce bije." To krótkie zdanie zawiera opis naszej Celci, bo jak tylko usłyszy poleczkę lub oberka, w tej chwili zabiera się do tańca. Lubi ona też jeździć na rowerze, co jej sprawia wiele uciechy i radości.

Jańcia—to miłośnica muzyki klasycznej. Dać jej dobrą i interesującą książkę i nastawić radio na piękną operę lub też symfonię, a będzie zadowolona i spokojna.

Ach, to Hani ulubiona rozrywka—zwiedzać miejsca historyczne. Interesują ją starożytne budynki i miasta tak, że w święta i wakacje, wyjeżdża ona, by zobaczyć np. Washington, D.C., House of Seven Gables, Old Newgate Prison, Plymouth Rock itp. Wszystkie korzystamy z jej wycieczek, gdyż słyszymy po powrocie, dokładne opisy naocznego świadka.

Łyżwiarstwo wielce zachwyca Janię. To też, gdy zamarznie rzeka, która płynie w pobliżu jej mieszkania, wychodzi ona żwawo, wkłada swe łyżwy i jak wiewióreczka, szukając cennego orzecha, tak Jania łyżwuje po gładkim lodzie. Ileż to uciechy i wesela sprawia jej ta zabawa.

We Therefore Bequeath

As our most joyous life at our beloved Alma Mater is coming to a close, we, the Class of 1948 of Our Lady of the Angels Academy, possessing the necessary qualifications and requirements for the drawing up of a legal document, do declare our Last Will and Testament.

PART I

To Our Dear Alma Mater, we bequeath our loyalty, fidelity, and generous prayers for its welfare.

To Reverend Maximilian Soltyssek, our chaplain, we extend most sincere appreciation for his daily spiritual services and zeal in promoting God's kingdom in our hearts.

To Reverend Paul Bartlewski, we leave our deepest gratitude and prayerful thanks for his Christ-like generosity expressed in numerous ways.

To Reverend Henry Fiedorczyk, our confessor, we express our sincere, "THANK YOU", for devoting his time each week for our spiritual welfare.

To our Most Honored Parents, we give our high esteem and deep respect with an unceasing prayer that God reward THEM with His precious Love in a thousand gracious ways.

To our numerous benefactors, we offer words of grateful acknowledgment and a fervent prayer.

PART II

To Reverend Mother Mary Catherine, who was always interested in our progress, we bestow our tender sentiments of appreciation and admiration. May the joys of the Beatific Vision be your eternal recompense.

To our beloved Directress, Sister Mary Viterbia, we bequeath our love for her maternal solicitude and advice, and our affection and reverence for her untiring efforts in molding our characters in accordance with the spirit of a "True Angelite".

To our Faculty, we delegate a frequent prayer: "May God repay You" for all your indefatigable tasks and kindness.

PART III

To the Seniors, we leave our devotion to Our Dear Alma Mater and courage to carry out their numerous responsibilities for the good of the school.

To the Juniors, we cede our zeal to work whole-heartedly in behalf of the Academy.

To the Sophomores, we grant our admiration for everything that is beautiful.

To the timid, unknown Freshies, we leave our heartiest wishes for success throughout all four years.

PART IV

I, Ann Halak, yield:

My car and all its troubles to Amaryllis H.
My love for travelling to Jean C.
My desire to be an English teacher to Barbara T.
My deep dimples to Jean M.

I, Celine Czaja, bequeath:

My Florida tan to Fanny M.
My love for beauty to Franny K.
My overdue books to Connie L.
All my pep to Theresa R.

I, Cecilia Wegrzyn, leave:

My natural curls to Sylvia G.
My stage fright to Aileen C.
My winning looks and graceful manners to Lorraine Z.
My American History notes to Joan K.

I, Dorothy Gondek, present:

My latest fashions to Frances K.
My soprano voice to Jane K.
My typing technique to Mary J.
My love for the piano to Emily G.

I, Jean Ann Skower, grant:

My love for Chemistry to all the Seniors.
My desire for a nursing career to Fay F.
My quiet and calm attitude to Marlene O.
My worries to Genevieve G.

I, Jeanette Thouin, cede:

My admiration for classical music to Dolores K.
My sales talk to Bernardine T.
My interests in all classes to Alma Jane S.
My supply of questions to Claire K.

Whereof, we the Class of 1948 leave — affix our hand and seal to this last will and testament.

Attested: ANN HALAK
CELINE CZAJA
CECILIA WEGRZYN
DOROTHY GONDEK
JEAN ANN SKOWER
JEANETTE THOUIN

CZEŚĆ TOBIE! UKOCHANA ALMA MATER

Akademio, szkoło nasza! ty jesteś jak zdrowie;
Ile cię trzeba cenić, ten tylko się dowie,
Kto cię opuszcza. Dziś naukę twą w całej ozdobie
Widzę i opisuję, bo wdzięcznam jest tobie.

Alma Mater droga, co anielskiej bronisz cnoty,
I serca nasze kształcisz! Ty co Chrystusowy
Cel nam przedstawiasz, czyniąc nas Jego wiernym ludem!
Jak nas od wstępu ochraniałaś powołaniem—
(Gdy od płaczącej matki pod Twoją opiekę
Ofiarowane, znużoną podniosłyśmy powiekę,
I zaraz mogłyśmy spiesznie od twego progu,
Iść za spełnione marzenia podziękować Bogu)—
Tak nas prowadzisz z dnia na dzień na Zbawcy łono!...
Tymczasem kieruj naszą duszę utęsknioną
Do tych pól niebieskich, do tych krain wiecznych,
Szeroko nad pojęciem ludzkim rozciągnionych.

Jak Adam Mickiewicz oddaje hołd, cześć, i dzięki swej Ojczyźnie, we wstępie do
"Pana Tadeusza", swej sławnej epopei, tak my, chcąc okazać, że oceniamy naukę, wykształcenie, i wychowanie nam dane, naśladowałyśmy jego słowa, stosując je do ulubionej naszej Alma Mater.

W HOŁDZIE—NAJDROŻSZYM RODZICOM!

Czas, Alma Mater, opuścić tve progi,
Gdyż już skręcamy w Nowicjackie drogi.
Czy przeto nie słusznie i wdzięcznie
Kochanym Rodzicom podziękować serdecznie?

Odczuwałyśmy Waszą dobroć i miłość,
Złote serca, opiekę i troskliwość.
W kilku słowach składamy setne dzięki,
Wiedząc, że te myśli pozostaną w pamięci.

Wiele sprawiliście nam w życiu radości,
Wam się należą czyny wdzięczności.
Wszystkie te starania mocno oceniamy,
Za to my Was tak mile kochamy.

Żeście pozwolili nam przyjść do klasztoru,
I ofiarowali nas chętnie bez oporu.
Cóż dodać może nam większej radości,
Nad służbę Panu tu i w wieczności?

Oby Bóg dobry Wam stokrotnie nagrodził,
A jeszcze tu na ziemi—życie osłodził.
Niech na Was obficie zlewa łaski,
I zawsze zachowa od wszelkiej troski.

Modlitwy nasze spłacać będą dług,
Lecz sownie nagrodzi tylko Dobry Bóg.
Zdrowiem i szczęściem, łaską Swą,
Niech Bóg raczy spełnić prośbę tą.

JESZCZE TYLKO SŁÓWKO

Żegnajcie nam nasze drogie internatki,
Spędziłyśmy bardzo miłe chwile z wami.
Opuszczamy progi ukochanej chatki,
Miłe wspomnienia o was uchodzą z nami.

Niech wam Jezus życie umili
Na każdym kroku w każdej chwili;
I Maryja niech zawsze was wspiera—
To nasza za was modlitwa szczerą.

Z kochających serc ślemy życzenia,
Jak najlepszego powodzenia,
Obyście głębokiej radości
Doznały, oraz szczęśliwości.

My Dear Girls:

You are now passing through the gates of your Alma Mater with memories of high ideals and precepts imparted to you through the plastic years of your youth. As you are about to make your debut in this troubled world of today, resolve to preserve these high ideals. Let your souls remain post-graduates in the school of Christ. With unbounded confidence, the secret of all life's victories, follow Christ, the Master Teacher of the art of human living. Let spirituality fused with scholarship enkindle in you that innate quality of a true Christian woman — the desire to give self in service to others. Remain always Mary-like, refined, true Angelites. May Christ and Mary escort you safely onward and upward to the Eternal Commencement of God's Saints in Heaven!

SISTER MARY VITERBIA
Principal

"Character interpretations"

It was most pleasant to have been of service to such a finé group of students in such a fine school.

The foundation of character your school is building for you is most precious in your dealings in the future.

Happiness ahead!
